DATE OF ISSUE: 6 FEBRUARY 2015

WORLD POETRY DAY

DATE OF ISSUE: 20 MARCH 2015

LETTER FROM THE CHIEF

Dear Collector.

I wish to welcome you to UN Postal Administration's 2015 stamp programme. We have been working diligently and we hope you will enjoy both the themes and the stamp designs. From an Endangered Species issue on Birds of Paradise to an issue on the 70th Anniversary of the United Nations, 2015 promises to be an interesting year in stamps for UNPA.

We are scheduled to return to our offices in the General Assembly building here at Headquarters sometime in January 2015. We anticipate that our updated shop will be open then and we look forward to seeing you in the new updated Visitors Area.

The Lunar Calendar series continues with a sheet for the Year of the Ram. This year's Greetings sheet is a change from previous years. A sheet from our Vienna office will be released first rather than a New York sheet.

In February the eighth edition of the Coin and Flag series will be issued. This will be the last issue with 24 stamps. For future issues, when there are 8 new member states, a new sheet will be released.

Later, in March we will celebrate World Poetry Day with an issue of six miniature sheets. The intent of the day is to foster the reading and teaching of poetry throughout the world. The six official languages of the United Nations are represented on each sheet through poetry by

Our new website has finally been launched and we thank you for your encouraging and helpful comments. I also will ask everyone to visit the site to cast your vote for your favourite stamp of 2013. Now I would like to thank all of my colleagues here in UNPA for their support in the past year. I have been fortunate to work with some excellent people. I also wish to thank you all for your interest and support to the United Nations stamp programme.

Elward M. Hynes Edward Hynes

Officer-in-Charge United Nations Postal Administration

n 20 March 2015, the United Nations Postal Administration (UNPA) will issue a set of 6 stamps to commemorate World Poetry Day. A decision to proclaim 21 March as World Poetry Day was adopted during UNESCO's 30th session held in Paris in 1999.

In celebrating World Poetry Day, UNESCO recognizes the unique ability of poetry to capture the creative spirit of the human mind. One of the main objectives of the Day is to support linguistic diversity through poetic expression and to offer endangered languages the opportunity to be heard within their communities.

The observance of World Poetry Day is also meant to encourage a return to the oral tradition of poetry recitals, to promote the teaching of poetry, to restore a dialogue between poetry and the other arts such as theatre, dance, music and painting, and to support small publishers and create an attractive image of poetry in the media, so that the art of poetry will no longer be considered an outdated form of art, but one which enables society as a whole to regain and assert its identity.

Poetry reaffirms our common humanity by revealing to us that individuals, everywhere in the world, share the same questions and feelings.

Poetry is the mainstay of oral tradition and, over centuries, can communicate the innermost values of diverse cultures.

ARTWORK DESCRIPTIONS FROM ARTIST AND DESIGNER SERGIO BARADAT:

I selected these poems based on my knowledge and love of the genre. Each theme illustrates a universal truth: The Evanescence of Time, Forgiveness, Longing, Love, Wisdom, and Nature.

The artwork I created is a cross between Illustration and Collage; with the exception of the Russian sheet, where I used a painting by the artist Nikolai N. Dubowski.
